

Kevin Moore

Vice President, Policy, Health and Human Services UnitedHealthcare Community & State

Kevin Moore is the Vice President of Policy for Health and Human Services at UnitedHealthcare Community & State. UnitedHealthcare Community & State proudly serves nearly 6.4 million Medicaid members in 27 states, plus Washington D.C. UnitedHealthcare is a division of UnitedHealth Group (NYSE: UNH) which is a diversified health and well-being company with a mission to help people live healthier lives and help make the health system work better for everyone.

As Vice President of Health and Human Services, Kevin focuses on the development of sustainable interventions that improve the health of those we serve by identifying and addressing social, economic, workforce, transportation and nutritional barriers. Prior to this role, Kevin served as Senior Vice President of Medicaid Strategy for Aurora Health Care. Before joining Aurora Health Care, Kevin was appointed by Gov. Scott Walker to serve as Wisconsin's Medicaid Director and Administrator of the Division of Health Care Access and Accountability in the Department of Health Services (DHS).

Kevin has served on a several boards and committees including the Waste, Fraud and Abuse Elimination Task Force, the State Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse (SCAODA), and the Wisconsin Child Abuse and Neglect Board.

Kevin holds dual Bachelor of Science degrees in History and Political Science from the University of Wisconsin—Madison. He, his wife Heidi, and daughter Scout reside in Madison, WI.

For more information about UnitedHealthcare, visit www.uhc.com, or follow @myUHC on Twitter and join the conversation on our UnitedHealthcare Community Plan Facebook page.